FILOROMO AWARD

Honoring

GREG KRAJEWSKI

This award recognizes an individual that has gone above and beyond for the local western Chester County community. An individual who displays unselfish dedication and demonstrates creative and contributing leadership. Some one who services far and beyond any call of duty, is respective of all peoples, optimistic and futuristic in fact and philosophy, and possesses the strength of humility

The 2025 Joseph G. Filoromo Award will honor Greg Krajewski, President of Paragon Business Gifts, for his long-standing commitment to the Western Chester County community.

Greg served as the Chamber Board President in 2008 and dedicated his expertise to the Board of Directors, growing the Chamber's impact on local small businesses. He also served as the Coatesville Rotary President twice, most recently in 2024, when he ignited a campaign to encourage younger generations to join the organization. His efforts ultimately expanded Rotary engagement and membership during his term with a successful member drive. His long list of volunteerism includes coat and book drives, highway clean-ups, and supporting various Coatesville historic preservation efforts, such as the centennial celebration of the city. Most recently recognized, Greg was the driving force behind bringing back the beloved Strawberry Festival to the City of Coatesville in 2025.

The Chamber's Regional Planning Committee meets monthly to develop initiatives to enhance infrastructure, workforce and education and many other topics that have a direct impact on businesses located in ChescoWest.

COMMITTEE GOALS

1. Attract new business and industry to support economic development.
2. Invest in new economic opportunities that align with the region's heritage, natural resources, and landscape.
3. Encourage a coordinated approach to development and conservation that empowers residents and stakeholders and fosters inter-municipal cooperation.
4. Brand the Western Chester County Region with an identity that reflects its diversity and unique strengths and character.
5. Improve and expand existing infrastructure to provide a broader and more efficient network of facilities and services.

FUTURE FOCUS

The Chamber hosted local businesses, municipal leaders, investors, developers, and other professionals to the Future Focus Breakfast. This event highlighted businesses that are expanding, building and investing in ChescoWest and what that means for the region. Projects on display included the Shoppes of Sadsburyville, Edlon Inc.'s new warehouse project, and The Golf Zone's entire rebuild from a devastating fire.

John H. Lymberis | 2025 Board President

lymberis@comcast.net

Having served on the Chamber Board of Directors since 1999 and now in my third separate term as President, I've gained a unique perspective on our organization's growth. Over the years, I've witnessed the dedication of our Board Members and the brilliance of our Staff as they've transformed the Chamber into a thriving force that leads our region. As we celebrate and Praise the Past, we are equally focused on Forging the Future for decades to come... our Members should be excited!
